MONTGOMERY BLAIR ALMA MATER

By old Sligo's winding waters, Gentle hills of green
Shelter us their proudest treasure, Alma Mater Queen.

We, thy students, will be loyal, for the glory fight.
Always keep thy name untarnished, and thy honor bright.

Sixty years by Sligo's waters, beacon on the hill
Ever growing, moving upward, making progress still.
Fine new programs, diverse students, time to move ahead
On to new heights at Four Corners with the white and red.

As the years shall bring thee power and thy share of fame,
Countless students coming after shall exalt they name.
Speak thee fairly, speak thee proudly, Shout it to the air.
Hail to thee our Alma Mater, Hail Montgomery Blair.

Lyrics by Betty Abbott (Senior student 1936 who wrote the words to fit the music of Cornell's Alma Mater, old folk tune, "Annie Lilse") and Norm Stant (MBHS English teacher 1968-2004.)
